After an eight-month investigation by the Florida Highway Patrol, Hill was charged with vehicular homicide and manslaughter. Three and a half years after the accident she was tried and found guilty of two counts of vehicular homicide and on May 10, 2004 she was sentenced to fifteen years in prison. In October 2004 two new witnesses came forward claiming that Mary Hill was not speeding just before the crash. Despite their testimony the judge denied Hill's request for a new trial.
